My New Junior High Life in Japan
我的日本初中新生活

Welcome to my junior high school! Today was the entrance ceremony, and it marks a new start for me. I'm ready to explore all the new things here.
欢迎来到我的初中！今天是入学典礼，这对我来说是一个新的开始。我准备好探索这里所有的新事物了。

We have to wear school uniforms, and I really like mine. My summer uniform is a sailor suit. The top is white and short-sleeved, with a dark navy blue collar and matching cuffs that have white stripes. The best part is the bright red scarf I tie at the front. The pleated skirt is also dark navy blue, and I wear navy blue socks with it. The boys look very smart in their black, high-collared jackets called 'Gakuran'.
我们必须穿校服，我非常喜欢我的这一套。我的夏季校服是一套水手服。上衣是白色的短袖，有着带白色条纹的深蓝色衣领和袖口。最棒的部分是我在胸前系的鲜红色领巾。百褶裙也是深蓝色的，我用深蓝色的袜子来搭配。男生们穿着黑色高领夹克，叫做“Gakuran”(詰襟)，看起来非常帅气。

Our school has a big teaching building with three floors. On the first floor, there are some science labs. The library is also in the teaching building, and I love the idea of reading there after school.

We have many new subjects, like history, science, and of course, English. I have a textbook for After school, most students join club activities, which are called 'bukatsu'. I think I want to join the art club or the tennis club. I want to make many friends here and learn a lot.
